Greetings First Presbyterian Church:

My name is Lori Stoll, Volunteer Coordinator for St. Joseph mercy Hospice. I am reaching out to you today in hopes you and your congregation may be able to help.

We are currently seeking volunteers for our hospice program. A volunteer with St. Joseph Mercy Hospice will have the opportunity to offer a special service to patients who have chosen to live their final days with dignity and peace.

Please consider offering this volunteer opportunity within your organization via your organization's website, organizational Facebook, bulletin board or church bulletin. To assist, we are providing you with the enclosed materials which can be posted or shared in any manner with your members.

Please have any individuals interested in becoming a St. Joseph Volunteer contact me directly with any questions they may have – contact information provided below.

Our deepest thanks and appreciation, in advance, for your time and consideration regarding our sincere need for caring individuals to become a St. Joseph Mercy Hospice Volunteer.

Regards,

Lori Stoll

Your Time

St. Joseph Mercy Hospice is seeking caring and compassionate people to join our Hospice Teams as Volunteers.

Hospice Volunteers provide support to patients and families facing life-limiting illnesses.

Patient and family support may come in the form of companionship, comforting presence, caregiver relief, light household chores, or vigil volunteering.

To find out how you can make a difference in your community, please contact
